A JOURNALIST'S ADVENTURE.

The Checkered, Striped, and Spotted Career of Donald Padmanoff, of Louisville.

From the Indianapolis Sunday Herald.

Mr. Donald Padmanoff, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, is about to publish his autobiography. Autobiographies, as a general thing, are not enticing, but, knowing something of the author's strange and eventful career, we risk nothing in commending his work to the public. Mr. Padmanoff is a Pole by birth, but not being the longest Pole he has heretofore failed in his efforts to knock the persimmon. Being an ardent patriot, at the age of 16 years he went to St. Petersburg for the purpose of conspiring against the czar, where he fell in love with a beautiful Russian princess, and was by her betrayed to the authorities. He was tried and condemned to be made a frozen statue of. In the depth of a Russian winter, young Padmanoff was chained to a post on the banks of the Neva, and deluged with innumerable buckets of water. Ice to the depth of three inches had already formed over him, when he was reprieved and resuitated. In speaking of it afterwards, Pad. admitted that it was a nice thing to be made a statue of. As soon as he was sufficiently recovered he was knouted, sent to Siberia, and put to work in a diamond mine. Here, by his intelligence and good behavior, he ingratiated himself with the superintendent, kept his books, and stood in with him on the perquisites. After five years of servitude, young Padmanoff effected his escape, having in his possession a diamond of the purest water as big as a pigeon egg, and valued at twelve hundred thousand rubles. The mountain passes were strictly guarded, but so effectual was his disguise that he eluded the vigilance of his pursuers. He swallowed his diamond once every twenty-four hours, to guard against robbery. In the Ural mountains, in a fight with robbers, he had one eye knocked out with a chunk of quartz, and instead of swallowing his diamond as usual, he secreted it in the cavity of the missing eye. After eight months of weary wandering, during which he suffered the most extraordinary privations, he made his way across the Prussian frontier, and from thence to London, where he taught the Polish and learned the English language, afterward taking a position on the London Times. At the breaking out of the Crimean war he enlisted as a light dragoon, and was one of the six hundred who rode into "the mouth of hell" at Balaklava. He was badly wounded in one of the assaults on the Malakoff, and was nursed by Florence Nightingale, who took quite a shine to the young adventurer. After the war he deserted, and made his way to Louisville, where he sought and readily obtained employment on the Courier-Journal. Here he dropped the "off" from his name, and became simple Padman. Singularly enough, he still shows that diamond, which he keeps buried in his back yard, and resolutely refuses to sell at any price. Few of the readers, who see the pale-faced, slender man threading his way through the streets of Louisville, starting nervously every time a dog barks, would suspect that the modest writer of "Small Talk" has wealth enough to purchase a kingdom if he would only convert it.

Among Mr. Padman's peculiarities is a not altogether unreasonable fear of dogs. He has been bitten seven times by rabid dogs, and was only saved by excision of the bitten part and actual cauterization. He is brave as a lion with other beasts, and has been known to tackle the tiger in his lair. Last summer, while going from the office to his home on Chestnut street, he was attacked by an ocelot that had escaped from Robinson's menagerie. Without a moment's hesitation Mr. Padman thrust his arm down the creature's throat, grasped the root of its tail and turned it inside out.

YOUNG LADY to a beau, of whose company she is getting tired; "I hope you are not nervous, because that clock has a queer effect on people. All my gentlemen acquaintances start when it strikes ten, and it's just going to strike; so if you are nervous perhaps you had better go home before it begins." He went.

THE 3,000 negroes in the Indian Territory, who were formerly slaves of the Choctaws, have at last grown indignant because their ex-masters still refuse to grant them equal rights, and are going to appeal to Congress to decide whether they are citizens of the United States or citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or whether a negro has any rights which a Choctaw Indian is bound to respect.

AN EXCEEDINGLY modest young lady, desiring the leg of a chicken at the table, said: "I'll take the part that ought to be dressed in drawers." A nice young gentleman who sat opposite, immediately said: "I'll take the part that ought to wear the bustle!"

WHEN SIMPKIN'S wife kicked him out of bed, says he, "See here now! You'd bettter not do that again; if you do it will cause a coolness!"

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 5.

THE ELECTION.

The vote throughout the county yesterday was very light, as will be seen by the returns published elsewhere. They show the election of Judge Greer by a majority of 2038; Waggoner for Clerk by a majority of 210; Park for Treasurer by a majority of 417 and Nickey for School Superintendent by a majority of 25. There is a moral in this result, of which we will speak at length to-morrow.

NO OCCASION FOR CROAKING.

The New York Shipping List says of the financial situation: "In these times of business depression the country needs something of the pluck, courage, and confidence which it has heretofore exhibited in the presence of great calamities. Suspicion and distrust are weak and cowardly, and not only aggravate actual troubles, but create new ones. The country is richer to day in solid wealth than it ever was before, there is as much money now as there was six months ago; there has been no destruction of real values, and there is no valid reason why business should not speedily recover from its depression. Croakers should be silenced, alarmists frowned down, and every man should exhibit a practical faith in the country's progress in spite of all obstacles. The gold and stock gambling fraternity, who are largely responsible for the late panic, will have to stand aside and let legitimate enterprises have a chance."

A letter from Rome says "According to the report in the Official Journal the ecclesiastical property which was sold under the hammer in September, in the whole kingdom of Italy, brought 3,123,000 francs. It consisted of 1,277 lots, the valuation of which the Government had fixed at 1,297,000 francs. During the current year 11,333 parcels have been sold, bringing 28,000,168 francs. From the end of September, 1867, until the end of September of the present year, 88,830 lots have been sold, bringing 333,107,000 francs — The price at which the property was put up is represented by the gross sum of 430,107,818 francs, showing a difference of about one quarter between the estimated value and the price realized."

During the fiscal year which ended June 30, the amount of gold deposits in the United States Mint was $50,037,-420.45. The gold coinage of the year footed up $35,249,337.50. The silver deposits were $12,807,389.13. The silver coinage amounted to $2,945,795.50. The gold coinage of October was nearly $14,000,000. The Director of the Mint estimates the entire gold coin of the country at $135,000,000, and the silver at $5,000,000. The volume of our specie is increasing at an encouraging rate.

On Saturday morning it was reported that three prisoners had broken out of jail at Terre Haute, Ind., on Saturday evening there were six, and now that there were nine. It is time to stop them and have a fair count.

Civil service competitive examinations will be held in Cincinnati, commencing on the 19th of November, and in St. Louis, commencing on the 26th of said month. The President is evidently determined, as he said at the first, "that this experiment shall have a fair trial. It is to be hoped that it will develop features in the future such as to recommend it to the favor of the people more strongly than any that have yet appeared

The Illinois Supreme Court, in its wisdom, has seen fit to give Chris Rafferty, the undoubted murderer of Policeman O'Meara, in this city, another new trial! This is the bloody-handed wretch who, it will be remembered, has already had two trials, being convicted and sentenced to be hanged each time. The Supreme Court now decrees that he shall have a third trial, because of some unessential irregularity in the manner of his arrest after the murder was committed. Who cares how the wretch was arrested, since the fact that he ought to have been arrested, being certainly guilty of the murder, is undisputed?—Chicago Journal.

There are in the United States one hundred and three railroad car manufactories, and are exclusively employed in that kind of work. Thirty-one of the above are located in the State of Pennsylvania, one of which turns out a new railroad car every forty-six minutes working time.

Cities force growth, and make men talkative and entertaining, but they make them artificial.

LETTER FROM FRED. KUNY.

FRANKFORT ON THE MAIN, Oct. 16, '73.

FRIEND MOSSER:—I had intended to write to you from Berlin, the great capital of the German Empire, but I was there only three days, and was so completely tired out every evening from my expeditions to see the sights, that I was unable to write. I will not try to give a sketch of the city—I will only say that the treasures heaped up in the Museum are alone worth a journey across the ocean. I wished that Mr. Gastman had been with me; I know he would have appreciated it a great deal better than I. For hours I stood there gazing at the fresco paintings of the great Kaulbach. In the entrance to the New Museum I felt something like an Indian before a locomotive—I felt also that there was something higher still than the almighty dollar. I went through some forty apartments, filled with everything imaginable, and was told that I had not seen more than half of it—it would take weeks to see it all.

In the departments for paintings I saw about a dozen persons, mostly ladies, copying pictures from celebrated artists, and the very best were made by ladies.

In the evening I saw the great opera of Richard Wagner's, Lohengrin, and again the backwoodsman was lost in astonishment.

I had the pleasure of seeing Field Marshal, Prince Frederick Charles, but he didn't shake hands with me, like Bismarck did with friend Stommel.

I left Berlin on the noon train last Sunday, and a meaner and more miserable journey I never experienced. I wish that all the railway officials here could be sent over to America to learn something. The coaches are not near so long as those in America, and each is divided into six coupes, each having room for about ten persons. In one of these coupes I was locked up, without a chance to eat, without any fire in the stove, and not able to get out I felt almost like a prisoner, but I stood it like a man until I reached Frankfort, the most ancient city in South Germany.

Frankfort is a fine city to live in, and it would gladden the hearts of our Decatur ladies if they could buy their vegetables in a market like I have seen here The Zeil is the finest street in the city and thronged from morning till night; but people here don't run on the streets like they do in American cities—they take things easy; it seems that time is not money to them.

I visited the Palmen Garden, which is the finest in Europe, a most magnificent gathering of all the tropical plants and palms. I was also in the Hall of Coronation (Kronungsal) in the Romer, where the German Emperors (Kaisers) get the Coronation. There are fifty two life size pictures of Emperors, from the eighth century down to Franz I of Austria, 1806, covering a period of 1100 years.

There are many more objects here worth seeing, but I will start to morrow to my my own dear native city, to see my dear father once more. Thus far I feel like a stranger in a foreign land, and I have never known how dear my adopted country is to me till now. I have not heard one word of English spoken since I left Hamburg, and I am longing to hear it again. For several days after I landed in Hamburg I thought it was so queer that everybody talked German.

I will try to write you again from Stuttgardt or Munich.

Yours truly, FRED. KUNY.

THE SERMON OF THE HOUR.

From the New York Tribune.

The sermon of the hour, preached on every side, is Retrench. Economy is the fashion, especially among that very class whose private life is not apt to be seriously affected by the panic.—Now retrenchment to the rich man is a good and useful thing beyond a certain bound, and within that bound it is both foolish and suicidal. As long as his mills or founderies can be kept running without actual loss, it is cheaper for him in the end to give work to his hands than to foot up the bill of relief for the great sum total of want and disease next April. Let him leave his pictures and bric-a-bac bought at Vienna in bond as long as he pleases, and let his wife forego her usual Paris-made toilet; but why should he turn off half his corps of servants to throw them on the charity of the town, or why should his wife begin to stitch vehemently and fancy she is a model of domestic prudence, when in fact she is only starving the seamstress in the back street? In short, it is the duty of every man with money to give employment as far as possible to needier men, and after that alms. One word, too, as to alms giving The habit of most wealthy people is to throw large sums of charity into certain systematized religious or municipal and societies, which are useful enough ordinarily, but will not touch the root of the evil this winter. The class who need help now are those who have been independent workers, not paupers, who will be the very last to make their wants known to any society The American mechanic must come very near starvation before he will say 'I am hungry"

THE PEOPLE OF EUROPE WANT BREAD.—One of the most extensive grain dealers in the country reports taking every bushel of grain they could obtain, his house alone received 100,000 bushels of wheat each day, which is immediately sent abroad. He thinks the produce exchange is virtually out side of Wall street influences, and that any difficulty in the money market, occasioned by stock speculations, will not materially affect dealers in produce The people of Europe want bread, and they will get it if they are compelled to send gold for it. He concluded by saying that the prospects for a continued trade is very good.

The Bummer Ticket Elected in Chicago.

THE MATTOON POST OFFICE.

Special Dispatch to the Republican.

MATTOON, ILL., Nov. 5, 1873.

To settle the post-office controversy here a vote was taken at the election yesterday for postmaster. Capt Geo. W. Lynn received over two thirds of the votes polled.

The farmers' ticket in this county is defeated, with the exception of probably one man

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal, Nov. 3— News from Honolulu to October 18, received to-night, represents that the health of King Lunalilo is still improving, and all fears for the safety of his life are removed. His Majesty makes his appearance in public daily.

CINCINNATI, November 4—The Commercial's Knoxville (Tenn) special says. "The strike of the engineers and firemen on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad threatens to assume a dangerous character.—Some of the employes yesterday prevented a freight train from leaving by uncoupling the cars. The night passenger and all the freight trains have been discontinued. Col. Baxter, the attorney of the road, is now addressing the employes, explaining to them the trouble to which they are subjecting themselves, and advising a non interference with the operations of the road

NEW YORK, November 4— A special dispatch from Petersburg, Va., states that while about 300 colored men were marching in a procession last night, they threw stones at the houses, smashing windows and injuring citizens. The excitement became so great, owing to these acts of violence, that a white and a colored company were called out, and were kept under arms all night. Governor Walker approved this prompt action on the part of the military and citizens.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Gov. 4—Returns meagre. Indications point to the election of the Republican State ticket by a handsome majority, Davis running ahead of the ticket. There has been a good deal of scratching.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—The estimated Democratic majority is over 5,000. All the Democratic assembly is elected.

Milwaukee gives Taylor the Democratic candidate for governor, 6,300 majority, and the county is estimated at 8,000. All the Democratic assemblymen in the county are elected

The Daily Sentinel, the Washburne organ, estimates from the way the returns are coming in that Taylor will carry the State by 5,000 majority.

Prominent Republican's concede Washburn's defeat.

Milwaukee, Mov. 4.—Returns indicate the election of Taylor, democrat and reform candidate by 6,000 majority. Republicans concede 5,000, house, democratic and reform, senate, republican, light vote

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The election passed off quietly. The people's ticket is elected by a majority of from 5,000 to 7,000, and twelve out of the twenty aldermen. The people's ticket is headed by H D Colvin, superintendent of U. S. Express, for Mayor, the law and order and temperance ticket by the present acting Mayor, Bond The chief issue was the Sunday law.

CHICAGO, Nov 5, 1 A. M.—General indications show that the people's ticket is elected by 6,000 majority No returns from the county to show the vote outside of the city.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—The election of the Tammany county ticket is generally conceded, with doubts about Donahue for the Supreme Court, and the contest is exciting only in the Senate and Assembly districts

The indications are that the State will go Democratic by a large majority

The election of S. S. Cox to Congress is conceded.

Returns from Brooklyn indicate the election of a Democratic Mayor and 5,000 majority for Secretary of State.

The Democratic State ticket has 25,-000 majority in this city.

LAWRENCE, Kan. Nov 4.—The Farmers' movement carries his county by about 500 majority.

TOPEKA, Nov 4—The regular republican ticket is elected, except two members of the legislature

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4—The democrats elect the entire ticket by from 13,000 to 14,000 majority

NEWARK, Nov. 4—Republicans claim the legislature by a reduced majority. Returns meagre.

RICHMOND, VA, Nov. 4.—Leading republicans concede the election of Kemper by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority.

Laws allowing married women to trade upon their own account, and making them and their separate estate liable for the debts of the business, are, and must continue to be the source of a good deal of litigation. In Bangor Me., the wife being in the millinery business, she and her husband were sued for goods charged and billed to the wife alone. The court charged that prima facie she alone was liable. But if the husband had a joint interest in the business, not merely an interest as a husband, but over and above that as a partner, or so held himself out, then he was liable: otherwise not. The jury found that the husband "never promised."

SINGULAR OUTRAGES.

THE Virden (Ill.) News gives an account of a recent outrage by masked men upon a farmer named Henry Burns, who lives between Waverly and Virden. Two or three weeks since Mr. Burns purchased a patent gang-plow from a hardware firm in Waverly, for use upon his farm. As it lay in the field, one night it was taken to pieces, and the smaller pieces taken away. He bought new parts for the plow, and set it to work again. It was taken to pieces the second and third time, each entailing considerable expense upon the proprietor. On Friday last a son of Mr Burns was plowing in the field, when two men wearing black masks came up suddenly, and taking him, bound a glove over his eyes in lieu of a handkerchief, tied his thumbs together with a stout cord, and he was thrown on the ground and ordered to lay there The men then took the plow to pieces and scattered the various parts, took the horses and hitched them in an adjoining wood, and then left. The boy finally made his way to the house, some distance away, by following the furrow, where he told his story, stating that one of the men was tall and slender, and the other short and heavy-set. Mr. Burns is unable to account for the series of outrages.

DECATUR MARKET REPORT.

DECATUR, November 5, 1873

CONSUMPTION !

AND ITS CURE !

Victims of this awful disease are found in every neighborhood, in almost every house. For them and for their friends, we have tidings of good cheer and hope—the announcement of a most important discovery, firmly based upon common sense and reason, by which the terrible malady is positively controlled, and its victims are restored to health.

WILSON'S

Carbolated Cod Liver Oil

Is not a secret empirical nostrum. It is a happy combination of two remedies known to physicians everywhere as the best means of combating consumption. This combination is Mr. Willson's discovery, and is founded upon the following

SOUND REASONING.

Consumption is decay. Soothing, expectorant remedies are only useful as palliatives, they do not reach the cause—they do not stop the decay. Tonic medicines strengthen the life forces and prolong the battle, but the decay goes steadily on, and sooner or later the victim must yield. Climatic changes are sometimes good, but they seldom wholly cure. In short, the very first thing to be done is to STOP THE DECAY; then apply the restorative, tonic and strength giving treatment. Think a moment. The Lungs are decaying—tubercles, ulcerations cavities and deposits of poisonous matter (pus) are forming. The circulation carries this poison all over the body. Wasting, loss of appetite, enervation, night sweats, and all the terrible symptoms appear; is it worth while to doctor the symptoms, which are merely the results, while the decay, which is the cause, is eating up the life springs?

These two things are well known by the best physicians:

1st, Carbolic acid positively arrests Decay. It is the most powerful antiseptic in the known world. Even dead bodies are preserved by it. Entering into the circulation, it at once grapples with corruption, and decay ceases. It purifies the sources of disease.

2d, Cod Liver Oil is Nature's best assistant in resisting Consumption. It is at once a food, a tonic, a purifier, and a healer. It braces up and supplies the vital forces, feeds the wasted system, and enables nature to regain her foothold. For these purposes nothing can compare with Cod Liver Oil.—This is the theory of

CARBOLATED COD LIVER OIL,

As described fully in the inventor's circular, which will be mailed, upon application, to any address.

We cannot afford space to tell the whole story here, or to give the numerous certificates from eminent physicians and well known citizens testifying to the absolutely wonderful results flowing from this great discovery. Suffice it to say, it is curing thousands who supposed themselves to be at death's door.

Willson's Carbolated Oil is scientifically prepared with the purest Carbolic Acid, so combined as to be entirely harmless, with from the celebrated fisheries at Aalesund (Norway) pronounced by physicians the most delicate, efficient Cod Liver Oil in the world.

It is easily taken, tolerated by the weakest stomachs, digests readily, never becomes rancid, and is almost entirely free from the usual disagreeable characteristics of Cod Liver Oil.

For every use of Cod Liver Oil Mr. Willson's discovery is of the greatest value.

For the safe internal administration of Carbolic Acid, Mr. Willson's method of combining it with Cod Liver Oil is absolutely necessary.

WILLSON'S

Carbolated Cod Liver Oil !

Is a Specific and Radical Cure for

CONSUMPTION

And Scrofulous Diseases.

Remember the name, "Willson's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil." It comes in large wedge-shaped bottles, bearing the inventor's signature, and is sold by the best druggists.

Prepared by J. H. WILLSON, 83 John St., New York.

Sold by all druggists.

Official City and County Paper.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...French Capers, at Imboden's.

...Our Weekly to-morrow will contain an official report of the proceedings of the city council, the full election returns, and much other interesting matter of a local and general nature. A few extra copies may be had at the REPUBLICAN office.

...We may call these fine days our Indian Summer. We however warn people not to rely too confidently upon its long continuance. Anyhow the clouds may gather and the air be filled with sleet and snow accompanied by piercing winds.—Keep warming apparatus and extra cloth ing well in hand, for you know not what a day may bring forth.

.. Quail are coming in pretty freely. Experienced gunners, as a general thing, get well rewarded for a day's tramp over the prairies. Our trouble in regard to the matter is two-fold. In the first place we can see no time when we can go gunning, and in the second place those who do go don't seem to be apprised of the fact that we have a hankering for quail on oast.

...The evenings this week are so filled with good things that a fellow don't know which way to turn. We presume after this shower of amusements is over there will be a dearth for weeks, if not for months. That is about the way the thing generally runs, and the old adage "one extreme follows another" is about as applicable to the amusement business in this locality as it is to the weather.

...For choice sugars and syrups of a superior quality, go to J. Ullrich & Co's.

...Mr. E. A. Staro has been improving his grain elevator by putting in an engine and new corn sheller, together with some other additions and improvements.

...Travel upon the railroads for some reason has been more lively for the past few days than for a week or two before.

The Thing is Did.—We are of the opinion that the election is over, and we venture to say—taking all risks of contradiction—that the fellows who are elected feel better than those do who are not. The romantic trip up Salt river is hardly a compensation for defeat. The scenery on the route is very fine, but surpassed by the honors and emoluments of office.

Miss Jane Coombs at the Opera House to-night—a chance to see the most brilliant comedy known to the American stage, with a bright, particular star its leading character, viz: Miss Coombs as "Lady Gay Spanker" in "London Assurance."

Improvements.—M. Haworth is improving his warehouse by putting in a new Ottawa corn sheller, and is also building an addition to the west side with an arrangement for unloading grain from wagons without the use of shovels. This will very much improve the facilities for handling grain at this warehouse, and will render unloading both easy and expiditions.

Information.—We take this opportunity to say that the Wm. Starr who was reported in our police record of yesterday as having been fined in Justice Albert's court for drunkenness, was not W. H. Starr, our enterprising harness maker on the west side of the old square. "Will" is too much dr ven with his business to find time for any such foolishness, and whenever you call upon him you will find him sober as a judge, and ready to fit you with as nice a harness, whip or saddle as can be found anywhere in Illinois or any other State. We give this information for the sake of anxious friends who may have chanced to see our police report.

A Good Job.—We predict that the new cinder pavement will be very popular after the rough points get worn off. We have taken considerable pains to inquire of persons who have seen this kind of pavement after it had been in use for several months, and in some cases for years, and its record is in the highest degree satisfactory. In one city in New Jersey the stone pavement is being removed to give place to cinders, so highly satisfactory is the latter material. After becoming pulverized it becomes very hard and smooth, and being porous the water passes through it, leaving the surface constantly dry. We presume twelve months from this time will see all our principal business streets paved with cinders.

Off for California.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rea left to-day on the noon train for California. They expect to spend the winter in Santa Clara county, with a brother of Mr. Rea's.

Police Record.—On yesterday Dan Gill was in Justice Albert's court charged with carrying concealed weapons, and was fined ten dollars and costs.

Night Carousals.—Complaints are numerous of annoyance from chaps who get full of "benzine" and go hooting about town at all hours of the night, disturbing the rest and quiet of well disposed people. These fellows should be caught and heavily fined for their bad behavior. There is no reason why a whole neighborhood should be disturbed simply to gratify the devilishness inspired by bad whiskey in fellows already lost to shame, and who have no regard for decency. Let them feel the severest penalty the law provides for such offenders.

Logrenia drew a crowd again last night, and entertained them highly with his wonderful feats of legerdemain. The programme was in part new, as will be the case each night through the week. Numerous valuable presents were given away—the capital prize being a nice parlor lounge, which was drawn by Mr. Daniel Miller, living on Jefferson street. This evening the capital prize will be a nice black-walnut bureau.

Pitner offers special inducements in photographs. d4t

"Watchmen, What of the Night?"—Our office is crowded to day with anxious inquirers for election returns. We shall probably get enough returns before going to press to indicate the result with a certainty, so that the Salt river expedition can get under way this evening. The craft is ready, steam up, supplies on board and all hands in position, and the craft will move majestically up stream as soon as the passengers are on board.

Grain Shipments.—M. Haworth shipped during the week ending Nov. 1st, 6 car loads of oats and during the month of October, 32 car loads of oats over the P. & D. Railroad, and 9 cars of corn over the T., W. & W. road.

Waiting.—Work on the coal shaft seems to have been suspended for a few days; it is claimed to wait for timber with which to build the necessary fixtures for raising the dirt. We hope there may be no long delays. This weather is too fine to be fooled away without any progress being made in this important enterprise.

Wax Flower Materials.—A full line may be found at Hildebrandt's drug store. 5 1w Daughters of Rebekah —Remember the entertainment to be given by the Daughters of Rebekah at Concordia Hall on to-morrow evening. Mush and milk will flow in abundance; and other refreshments to match. Charades and tableaux will be interspersed, with numerous other things in the line of entertainments. Only ten cents lets you in.

Delays are Dangerous.—Our people who have dwellings to finish this fall have no time to spare. They will need to put in their best work while these pleasant days continue. Plastering may now be done with safety without fires, and the weather is very favorable for painting, either inside or out. We hope none of our neighbors who have been anticipating a pleasant winter in a new home will be left out in the cold. Hurry up the workmen, and get well settled before the holidays. A nice new house will add wonderfully to the pleasures of Christmas and New Year's.

House For Sale or Rent at a Bargain.—For particulars apply to W. C. Pitner, photo artist. 5 dtf

This is a rare opportunity to procure yourself a good pair of boots or shoes as low as you would have to pay for shoddy goods when sold for a profit. Dr. Kierstead, who has been occupying office parlors at Priest's Hotel, for a few days past, curing diseases by the application of his new system of auscultation and percussion, is highly spoken of by those who have received treatment at his hands. He seems not only to be an enthusiast in his profession, but to understand it thoroughly as well. He is a most agreeable and polite gentleman, of large experience in the practice of medicine, and no one can converse with him without being convinced that he has a host of new and important ideas in his line. REFERRING to the financial depression and the involvement of the Sprague brothers of Rhode Island, a Washington dispatch says that Senator Sprague, of that firm has made good provision for his offspring and family, irrespective of the marriage portion settled on Mrs. Sprague. The advent of each child born to the Senator has been the occasion for a gift of $500,000. As two of the children are living, this provision has secured to the family $1,000,000, which by economically-disposed persons is regarded as sufficient to keep them from want.

THE Chicago Times can talk square out when its theme is that old party it once loved and now so unmitigatedly detests. Hear it —

Musical Institute!

I wish to inform my friends, and the Musical Public, that the fall term having commenced I am prepared to receive pupils, and it is desired that those who wish to take

Having entered upon my duties as Organist of the First M. E. Hoping to receive the liberal patronage of this city, I remain, very respectfully,
